USDA Announced Grant Awards

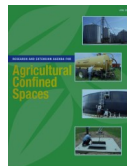

The U.S.D.A.—NIFA announced two new grant projects. The Youth Farm Safety Education and Certification Program grant builds on the activities of the Safety in Agriculture for Youth (SAY) Project which is led by Penn State University in collaboration with Ohio State University, University of Nebraska Medical Center, Utah State University and CareerSafe. Click here to learn more about SAY.

The second grant was awarded to Purdue University for the National AgrAbility Project that brings together the expertise of a range of partners to encourage individuals with a disability to remain in production agriculture. Click here for more information.

Agricultural Confined Spaces

The Committee on Agricultural Safety and Health Research and Extension—NCERA-197, through the NIFA, published the Research and Extension Agenda for Agricultural Confined Spaces. Click here to view.
